Copyright and trademarks

Both the content and structure of the VP Bank Website are protected by copyright and their use through saving, downloading or printing, except for personal use, requires VP Bank's prior written consent. The use of individual pages and/or sub-areas of this Website, through downloading and/or printing, is only permitted under the condition that neither the copyright notices nor other legally protected designations are removed. VP Bank retains all proprietary rights thereto.

Data security

When the VP Bank Website is accessed or VP Bank is contacted electronically, data relating to the Website visitor and the originator of the contact are, in principle, transmitted via an open network that is accessible to anyone. Data can therefore be transmitted across borders even if the visitor, sender and the receiver are in the same country. If individual data packets are transmitted in encrypted form, the visit per se as well as the sender and recipient nonetheless remain unencrypted. It also cannot be ruled out that the communication will be seen and falsified by third parties in the open network, that the content may be lost, wholly or in part, and thus become incomplete or unusable, arrive late or contain viruses. VP Bank cannot guarantee that these communications will be safe or error-free and therefore waives any and all liability for damages in this regard. In conclusion, it should be noted that a visit to this Website or establishment of contact could leave traces in the Internet which, under certain circumstances, may serve as an indication of a relationship with VP Bank.

Reference to other terms of use and legal notices

In individual sub-areas and special information sections of this Website, as well as with regard to specific services rendered by VP Bank, special agreements and terms may be stipulated. In the event of any contradiction, these special agreements and conditions take precedence over the above terms of use and legal notices.
