Excellent: VP Bank's annual report has once again received several awards

Vaduz, 29 October 2019

In 2019, the annual report of VP Bank Group was awarded eight international prizes. The awards confirm the high quality of VP Bank's information policy and once again demonstrate the bank's creativity in design.

For the first time, VP Bank qualified for a Gold Award at the "IADA" (International Annual Report Design Awards) in London. The 2018 annual report also received gold at the "ARC Awards" in the USA, where VP Bank was able to assert itself among 2,100 submissions from 34 countries. The ARC Awards have been presented in the USA for over 30 years.

VP Bank also received a Gold Award in the context of the "Vision Awards" of the LACP, the "League of American Communications Professionals" from the USA, with over 1,000 participants. Further silver awards came from the "Galaxy Award" and the "Stevie Awards" from the USA.

The online version of the VP Bank 2018 Annual Report received three international awards: Gold at the Stevie Awards and the LACP Vision Awards as well as silver at the ARC Awards.

In addition, a jury of communications and financial professionals again ranked the VP Bank Group's annual report among the best 12 reports from Switzerland and Liechtenstein within the framework of the "Swiss Annual Report Rating" of Harbour Club and Bilanz.

The VP Bank Annual Report is available on our website under "Investor Relations/Results Presentations and Publications".

The 2018 Online Annual Report is available under report.vpbank.com/en/2018.html

At the beginning of 2019, VP Bank expanded its brand identity and created a fresh sound composition to make the VP Bank brand audible. This project received the "Better Sound 2019" award in the "Audio Branding" category at the "International Sound Awards" in Hamburg, Germany.
