

VP Bank named 'Best Private Bank - Intermediaries' for the third time by Asian Private Banker.

Singapore & Hong Kong, 19 January 2024

With financial intermediaries at the core of VP Bank's business, the Bank's commitment and dedication to this segment was underscored by winning the prestigious "Best Private Bank - Intermediaries" award from Asian Private Banker for the second year in a row and the third time in the Bank's history.

True to VP Bank's DNA, financial intermediaries account for more than 50% of the bank's global business and is undoubtedly its primary focus segment. As financial intermediaries continue to expand their presence and investments in the region, VP Bank's expert understanding and deep knowledge of the increasingly complex needs and demands of their clients underpins its unique business proposition.

"We are extremely honoured to have been recognised by Asian Private Banker as the Best Private Bank - Intermediaries. Winning this prestigious distinction for the third time further solidifies our position in the Intermediaries business and is a testament to the hard work of our team, coupled with the unwavering trust and support of our clients and partners. This also aligns with the trajectory and progress of our Strategy 2026 which is now in its Growth phase and we are well-positioned to lead the way in servicing Intermediaries and our Private Clients with unparalleled excellence." said Pamela Phua, Chief Executive Officer of VP Bank Asia.
